If you had to give the sermon a title, what would it be?

For whom can you pray this week?

If you could get Jesus to answer any one question, what would it be?

Please discuss the following question with your family this week and summarize your discussion here.

In the Gospel of John, light/day means belief and darkness/night means unbelief. How light or dark is your faith right now? Why do you think that is?

If you have a question or comment for Pastor Greg, please check this box  and write it on the back of this paper.
